Being adequately insured and bonded is critically important to prepare your company to compete for available government contracts to be announced at the City of Knoxville’s June 22nd Business Opportunities Breakfast. This workshop will highlight the various types of surety bonds needed, as well as explain the process of obtaining a bond, the role of the agent/broker and underwriter, the cost of bonding, and how to develop a supportive surety company relationship. The workshop will also cover the various types of insurances required in government contracts, such as commercial general liability and workers’ compensation.

Presenters

Donzaleigh Powell, Bonding Consultant D-ConneX, LLC.

Chris Smith, Senior Surety Broker with Anderson & Catania, Surety Services, LLC.
