

Heritage Award Nomination Form

The Brown and Hood Heritage Award is presented by the Town of Stratford to an individual, group, organization, or company who strives to preserve Stratford's heritage, whether it is in the form of built architecture, the written word or through volunteer efforts to promote the values of heritage.

For example:

- A heritage property owner undertakes building work that maintains or restores the structure to a particular period, using original styles, methods and materials whenever practical.
- A Stratford resident demonstrates a long-term commitment to archaeology, history, museums, historic buildings and sites, genealogy, or folklore as it pertains to Stratford.
- An individual enhances the public understanding and appreciation of the Town's natural or human heritage through their volunteer work.
