Traveled the world six times, witnessed the results of overpopulation and devastation caused by war, starvation, climate change.

Became a vegetarian as a child in a safari hunting family. I’m very green, drive 2003 Toyota Prius, removed my lawn planted a small organic vegetable garden.

Promoting understanding and information on our neglected and marginalized neighbors living and shivering in squalor in tents and cars just a few blocks from the Piedmont borders.

Three years ago I entered a Ironman Triathlon I was one of several thousand participants, this event inspired me to research swimming in American. I discovered that 70% of black citizens cannot swim. Every child deserves this knowledge, failure to provide this knowledge, unlike other subjects that are taught can result in death or lifelong disabilities.

Suggesting a unifying motto for Piedmont. ...”Be Kind”... “Be Kind” in the motto of the Thomas’s School in Battersea where Britain’s Prince George attends. Its crisp clear and profound.

Please vote for me.
