

CANDIDATE'S STATEMENT
Piedmont General Municipal Election, November 3, 2020

Name _____ Connie Herrick _____ Age (optional) __ 63 __

My education and qualifications are:

We live in unprecedented times. Our health, safety and financial stability are constantly being challenged. We need thoughtful decisions backed by solid critical thinking skills to drive the progress of our City. I am deeply honored to offer my 40 year successful track record in both the private and non-profit sectors of healthcare, financial services and global transportation. I will bring financial expertise and operational experience to our City Council, a dedication to maximizing every dollar we pay in property taxes and a balanced approach to governing and policy making. Piedmont services and capital projects must be affordable for all our citizens and represent what the majority supports. I came to Piedmont in 1967 and am a Piedmont Middle School and High School graduate. My husband and I purchased our family home in 1992. Our son graduated from Beach Elementary, PMS and PHS. I am a Licensed Acupuncturist with an MBA in Finance and MS in Traditional Chinese Medicine. I promise to give voice to your vote and work diligently for the next 4 years as your City Council Member. Thank you. For more information: www.linkedin.com/in/connie-herrick
