If I were to be an animal that can fly, I would choose a blue jay because it can fly away also because seeing a blue jay means true faith. I love the color blue and my papa loves the color blue and he is my role model. The sky is blue colored. I've always dreamed of what it's like to be up above the clouds, it must be beautiful. I wish I could see it. And that is why I want to be a blue jay.
