CONTRACT FOR PLUMBING INSPECTOR
INTRODUCTION

Effective August 1, 2005, the Community Development and Planning Department of the City of Arlington established a program to register Third Party Organizations (hereinafter referred to as TPO) to perform plan review and inspection services for commercial construction projects, inspection services for new, addition or remodel single family residential construction projects and plan review services for fire suppression, special extinguishing or fire alarm systems requiring building or fire permits in accordance with the Construction Chapter and Fire Prevention Chapter of the City of Arlington Code of Ordinances. This document (hereinafter referred to as the Program) establishes policies and procedures, qualifications, insurance requirements, quality control, sanctions, etc. for registered third party inspection/plan review agencies to provide third party inspections/plan review for and on behalf of the Department.

This program provides Builders, Developers, Contractors or Owners a choice of TPO organizations to provide plan review and inspection services for their development project. The TPO organizations must be registered with the City and complete all necessary documentation.

Registered companies and individuals in the City of Arlington may provide plan review and inspection services to builders, developers, and others who require plan review and inspection services for applicable projects. The program is administered by the Building Official or his duly authorized representative. The Building Official is charged with the administration and enforcement of the building codes within the City of Arlington to ensure safe, sound and accessible buildings and conformity to other local and federal laws and regulations. The Building Official manages the permitting process, plan review and building inspection for new construction, alterations, repairs and use. The Building Official registers third party plan review and inspection agencies for the following types of plan review and/or inspections:

- Building
- Electrical
- Plumbing
- Mechanical
- Energy
- Fire Suppression Systems
- Fire Alarm Systems
- Special Extinguishing Systems
Builders, developers, or owners and others must file a request with the Building Official to use third party plan review or inspection services.

The Program is administered by the Building Official. Unless otherwise directed, the TPO shall address all correspondence to the Building Official:

AUTHORITY OF THE CITY OF ARLINGTON

The City of Arlington retains the authority to render all code interpretations and to require variances and appeals to be filed with the Building Code Board of Appeals, the Mechanical and Plumbing Code Board of Appeals, the Fire Code Board of Appeals and the Electrical Code Board of Appeals. The Community Development and Planning Department will maintain a quality control program and retains the right to review and monitor all plan reviews and inspections performed by TPOs. The City of Arlington will not be responsible for the cost of any rework due to TPO mistakes, errors or omissions. In the event the City determines that a third party organization is not performing in a manner to ensure compliance with all applicable codes, the City may require complete plan review and/or inspections by City staff.

REGISTRATION OF THIRD PARTY ORGANIZATIONS

Firms that wish to be registered as TPOs must complete an "Application for Registration for a Third Party Organization" available from the Community Development and Planning Department. The application requires a statement of qualifications for all salaried and/or contract employees supervising and/or performing plan review and inspections services. Upon review and acceptance of a firm's qualifications, the firm may be registered as a Third Party Organization. Evidence of minimum qualifications to perform these services includes:

- experience with municipal or state plan review and inspections;
- professional education and accreditation;
- certification from model code organizations;
- applicable trade licenses;
- other applicable accreditation(s).

The City reserves the right to deny registration to any firm or individual employee not meeting minimum qualifications. Firms that wish to appeal denial of registration may do so by filing an appeal with the Building Code Board of Appeals.
A TPO’s registration may be revoked if, in the opinion, of the Building Official and/or the Fire Chief or his designee, the third party organization does not perform services in a manner that ensures compliance with all applicable City codes. Firms that wish to appeal revocation from the list of registered firms may do so by filing an appeal with the Building Code Board of Appeals.

An individual plan reviewer and/or inspector’s registration may be revoked if, in the opinion, of the Building Official and/or the Fire Chief or his designee, the individual does not perform services in a manner that ensures compliance with all applicable City codes. Individuals that wish to appeal revocation from the list of registered firms may do so by filing an appeal with the Building Code Board of Appeals.

Statements of qualifications for new employees or contractors performing work for registered TPOs must be submitted and approved for registration prior to the new employee or contractor performing any work in the City of Arlington.

If a TPO’s or individual of that firm has their registration suspended or revoked, all active permits and or plan reviews associated with the TPO or individual shall be placed on hold until the project owner makes arrangements for an alternate method of compliance. The effected TPO or individual shall be prohibited from performing services immediately on all active, pending or future permits or permit applications (The suspension shall be immediate).

USE OF MULTIPLE THIRD PARTY ORGANIZATIONS TO PROVIDE PLAN REVIEW AND INSPECTION SERVICES

Projects that utilize TPO services may use a TPO for either plan review, for inspections, or both as allowed. Projects may use different companies for their plan review and for their inspections. However, the plan review and field inspections of projects must be for all four trades {building (including energy), electrical, mechanical, and plumbing}. You may select only one registered organization for each plans review or inspection function.

PROCEDURE FOR DEVELOPERS WISHING TO EMPLOY THIRD PARTY ORGANIZATIONS

Developers, owners, contractors or builders who wish to employ TPOs may contact the Community Development and Planning Department for a current list of registered TPOs. The City makes no representation concerning the firms except that they meet minimum criteria for education, experience, licensing, and certification necessary to perform plan review and inspection services. It is up to the developer and the third party organization to agree on costs of service, schedule of services provided, and any other arrangements between the two parties. The City is not responsible for compensating third party organizations.

Projects that utilize TPOs must still apply for all applicable permits from the Community Development and Planning Department and pay all applicable fees. Depending upon the type of project, additional plan review and inspections may be required by City staff in addition to the services provided by the TPO.

If a developer is unsatisfied with the services of a third party organization, the developer may request that the City perform the remaining plan review and/or inspection services. The developer may also employ an alternate third party organization with written permission from the Building Official. In any case, a change in the organization or method of plan review or inspection must be registered and approved with the City.

The registered TPO may act as an agent (permit applicant) for the owner. A Statement of Compliance with the City’s plan review procedures must be executed by the TPO and be submitted with the building permit application.

The owner of a project that wishes to utilize the registered TPO for inspection services must execute the TPO Inspection Designation form prior to the approval and issuance of the building permit.

EXCLUSIONS FROM THE PROGRAM

The following activities or parts of the Project are explicitly excluded from the scope of work of this Program:

- Granting of modifications or variances from any provision of the City of Arlington’s Construction, Fire Codes, or Building Codes, orally or in writing.
- Approval of installations in vaults and other projections in public space, without written documentation of such approval by the Department.
- Site work where jurisdictional authority lies with agencies other than Community Development and Planning/Building Inspection.
- Work subject to inspection and approval by the Landmark Preservation Commission of the City of Arlington.
- Work subject to separate plan review and inspection from other City of Arlington Departments (example: Fire Department System Inspections ).

PUBLIC RECORDS

Records, information, documents, whether finished, unfinished, or draft, that are developed, prepared, completed or acquired (hereinafter referred to as records) by the third party organization during the performance of services shall be made available to the City on request. Such records shall include calculations, data, studies, surveys, reports, correspondence, memoranda, maps, models, photographs, drawings, and audio or video recordings. All such materials shall be maintained by the third party organization for a period of one year after the issuance of the Certificate of Occupancy or after the termination of the working arrangements between the third party organization and the contractor/owner. The Building Official of the City of Arlington shall specify the type of record that must be provided to the City of Arlington to serve as permanent record and shall also specify the timing of the submittal of the records to serve as permanent record. Such documents must be delivered and reviewed prior to the issuance of a Certificate of Occupancy (CO).
CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY (COI)

In order to maintain the integrity of the Program, it is important that TPOs have no substantial business interest, direct or indirect, in projects on which they are retained to perform plan review and/or inspections, or in the owners, contractors or subcontractors of such projects. The TPO shall execute the Acknowledgement of the Conflict of Interest (COI) Policy.

A TPO, or any of its individual employees, is considered to have a substantial business interest in a project when:

- The organization or registered person owns 1% or more voting shares of the client,
- The organization or registered person receives more than 10% of its gross income for the previous year from the client, except for income derived for services as a third party organization or similar consultations,
- The registered person is an elected officer or a member of the board of directors or governing board of the client.
- The registered person fails to maintain an independent contractor relationship or becomes employed by the client,
- The organization or registered person has equitable or legal ownership with a fair market value of $2500 or more in the real property being inspected, or
- Another person related within the first degree by consanguinity or affinity of the registered person has such an interest.

A "client" means a sole proprietorship, partnership, firm, corporation, holding company, Joint Stock Company, receivership, trust, or any other entity recognized by law, which has hired the TPO to provide services under the TPO program.

Independence - The TPO:

- Is not owned, operated or controlled by an owner, builder, or trade person regulated under the construction codes.
- Is not financially affiliated with an owner, builder, or trade person regulated under the construction codes.
- Have the financial resources to act independently.

Organizational Structure – The TPO:

- Is not owned, operated or controlled by an owner, builder, or trade person regulated under the construction codes.
- Is impartial, does not charge fees contingent or based upon results from the reviews or inspections.
- Holds all employees, including contractors, to the same COI standards.
Written Personnel Policies

- Employees of the TPO involved in the review or inspection process do not engage in the design, construction, or sale of those same structures.
- Employees of the applicant involved in the review or inspection process, as well as their spouses, do not own more than 1% of the stock or have any substantial business interest in any owner, builder, or trade regulated under the construction codes.
- Employees of the applicant involved in the review or inspection process will not participate in a review or inspection for a client for which they have had such substantial business interest within the last 12 months.

SERVICE FEE STRUCTURE

All fees and costs related to the performance of a TPO are initiated at the option of the Builder, Developer, or Owner, shall be borne by the Builder, Developer, or Owner and paid directly by the Builder, Developer, or Owner to the TPO. The Builder, Developer, or Owner shall not be entitled to a refund of any portion of the permit fee for the third party inspection assigned and paid by the Builder, Developer, or Owner directly to the TPO, when those inspections are assigned at the option of the Builder, Developer, or Owner.

Exception, plumbing inspection fees.

The TPO plumbing inspector must be paid directly by the City. The plumbing inspector cannot contract directly with the developer. Once the TPO is registered with the City, the City will execute a contract with the individual plumbing inspector(s) and pay them directly for plumbing inspection work. The plumbing inspector may be employed by a third party company, but is still compensated by the City in accordance with Section 1301.255 (e) of the Texas State Board of Plumbing Examiners Plumbing License Law.

QUALITY CONTROL PROVISIONS

It is the intent of these quality control methods to maintain the mission of the City and Building Inspections to support safe sound accessible construction practices. And to give workable guidelines to perform the necessary support to perform plan review and inspection services.

REVIEW OF THE APPLICATION FOR TPO REGISTRATION

TPO registration shall be granted to an applicant by the Building Official within ten (10) business days of the filing of the application unless the Building Official finds from a preponderance of the evidence presented that:

1. False or misleading information is contained in the application or required information is omitted;
2. The applicant’s certification(s), license(s), experience and minimum training specified in the application are insufficient;
3. The applicant does not have satisfactory workmanship and/or performance
4. The applicant has failed to pay past fees associated with building inspections;
5. The applicant has been subject to disciplinary action within another municipality for failure to meet their minimum standards of performance;

An original application denied as outlined above may be amended one time within ten (10) days of the denial. Any amended application shall be reprocessed in the same manner as the original application without any additional fee being assessed. Original application fees are considered non-refundable.

Subsequent amendments to the application must be processed as an original application subject to the appropriate fees.

The TPO shall keep a log of all the construction inspections, and results, conducted, containing the permit number, date of issuance, the address of the approved project, and the type of construction inspection conducted, and list of non-complying items that require corrections. Copies of the log shall be made available to the Building Official in the format and timing as specified by the Building Official.

TPOs may be disqualified for poor prior performance on similar agreements with other entities.

The City reserves the right to send a representative to accompany any TPO inspector to the job site to ensure proper inspection methods and code interpretation of the City. The City’s representative shall have the authority to stop any work in progress that does not meet the code interpretation of the City. Additionally, this does not relieve the TPO of any liability for any corrective measures that the City’s representative may have missed that should have been performed or taken that would have prevented any malfunction and/or damage to the equipment or personal injuries.

The City may perform audits of the daily inspections/stops per inspector.

DAILY INSPECTION WORKLOAD

Given the complexity of the projects, the geography of the city, and experience and efficiency of personnel, daily inspection workloads must be reasonable and may not exceed 30 daily stops per inspector per eight (8) hour work day depending upon the complexity and proximity of the stops/inspections.

CHAIN OF CUSTODY OF PROJECT DOCUMENTS

The TPO shall agree to exercise due diligence in the safekeeping of any project documents. The drawings, specifications, electronic files in all types of media, or other materials received by the TPO in connection with the performance of any work under the Program may be protected by Open Records Law and shall remain the property of the City or other rightful owner.

ACCESS TO THE TPO

The TPO shall be accessible to the Building Official or his duly authorized representative during normal business hours, to provide updates and clarification of the results of its plans review and inspections.

A company or individual whose TPO registration has been revoked may not apply for a new TPO registration before the first anniversary of the date of revocation.

If a TPO company or individual is placed on probation, the Building Official may require the person:

1. To report regularly to the Building Official on matters that are the basis of the probation;
2. To limit practice to the areas prescribed by the Building Official;
3. To continue or review professional education until the person attains a degree of skill satisfactory to the Building Official in those areas that are the basis of the probation; and
4. Any other action that may be considered appropriate by the Building Official to insure the satisfactory service level.

The Building Official shall adhere to a progressive discipline approach relative to the severity of the violation of the registered TPO or individual.

The Building Official by rule shall: (1) adopt written guidelines to ensure that probation is administered consistently; and (2) develop a system to track compliance with the probation requirements.

GROUNDs FOR DISCIPLINARY ACTION

A company or individual TPO registration is subject to disciplinary action if the company and/or individual violate any provision of this Program, City ordinance or a Building Official directive. A violation of this program includes, but is not necessarily limited to:
