About Neighborhood Pride

Throughout the City of San Bernardino, there are many community members that demonstrate pride in their homes and businesses by maintaining their properties.

In an effort to acknowledge the many community members that take pride in their properties, the City has established the Neighborhood Pride Awards Program. As there are many community members that put forth tremendous efforts to beautify their properties, we are limited to eight (8) properties per nomination period.

Eligibility

- Properties must have a City of San Bernardino address.
- Photographs of the property are required.

How do I nominate?

- Complete the Nomination Form →
- Attach photographs of the property
