

Virtual Planning and Zoning Commission Meetings

LISTEN – WATCH- PARTICIPATE

If you plan to speak on an item complete the speaker form before the meeting starts, the sooner, the better.

INTERNET –

(1) The Links and Phone Numbers - click the link on the agenda, typically on the web site, the Monday before the meeting. Or click on Planning and Zoning WebEx links and ACCESS Codes;

(2) “Register” – We recommend you register before the meeting. You will get an email confirmation and virtual meeting invite (this also lets us see your name if you are signed up to speak)

For the meeting...

- Smartphones are easiest (1) you may have to download a free app; (2) make sure you have a full battery or access to a charger; (3) recommend headphones or earbuds with a microphone if you plan to speak.
- Laptop or Desktop (1) you may have to download an application or temporary application; (2) If you do not have a microphone on your computer (many desktops or older laptops may not) choose an audio option to use your phone when you join the meeting. Or use the call-in number along with your computer.

NO INTERNET –

Use the phone number and access code on the agenda. If you plan to speak on an item, complete the speaker slip attached.

ALTERNATIVES/HELP –

We can also take emails to read at the meeting. If you have questions, please give us a call or email. bcammara@auroragov.org (303) 739-7251.
