Spooktacular Fun Awaits On Our Trick or Treat Trail!

Join in on spooky season festivities at Morrison Nature Center and Star K Ranch, 16002 E Smith Rd., from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 29 and Sunday, Oct. 30.

Trick-or-treat your way through the wetland loop, encounter the creepy crawly critters that call Aurora home and create your own magical concoction with Fizzlepop Fendi, Mistress of Potions for Aurora’s Open Spaces. Costumes are welcomed and encouraged. The entry fee is $2 per person for this family-friendly event. Register and secure your spot at AuroraGov.org/NaturePrograms.
Let The Games Begin!

Hoping to keep your kiddos busy during Fall break? The city's eSports program is offering FREE video game play from noon to 7 p.m. Monday, Oct. 17 through Friday, Oct. 21 at Expo Recreation Center, 19055 E. Exposition Ave. Spots are limited so hurry and register now! Learn more and register at AuroraGov.org/eSports.

A Love Story For the Ages!

The city of Aurora Parks, Recreation and Open Space Department has helped create many magical memories over the years. The Aurora Now team captured some of these moments at the "Forever Young: Adult Prom" that took place this
We caught up with Richard and Barbara Keller, a 94-year-old couple who met and found love at the Aurora Center for Active Adults. In this feature from Aurora Now, we learn about their secrets for love and life.

A Braille-iant New Class!

Have you noticed braille letters on the signs in public buildings or on your coffee gift card and wondered how they were created?

Learn about the history of braille and how to write the basic UEB (Unified English Braille) braille alphabet in our new "Braille A-Z" class. We will also explore aspects of the amazing technology used to create braille for blind readers.

Classes begins on Wednesday, Oct. 26 at Central Recreation Center, 18150 E. Vassar Place.

Learn more and register at CityOfAurora.PerfectMind.com.

Take a Shot!

B-Ball Season is Here!

Our winter 2022-2023 basketball season is now open for registration with practices beginning the week of Nov. 14, and games starting on Dec. 3.

Price for residents is $122, and for non-residents is $153. Price includes a jersey, one practice per week and one game per week.

An informational parent and coach meeting will be held from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 9 at the Aurora Municipal Center, 15151 E. Alameda Parkway. Register today at AuroraGov.org/YouthBasketball.

Volunteer Coaches Needed! If you are interested, reach out to Matt Barlow at mbarlow@auroragov.org.

Taking Pride Where You Reside!
Give back to nature by participating in one of our Habitat Clean-Up Days! Removing trash from open spaces and waterways is essential for healthy communities, water and environments.

The habitat clean-up day is scheduled from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, Oct. 22 at Sand Creek Park and Bluff Lake Nature Center, 11255 E M.L.K. Jr Blvd. All ages are welcome!

Register today at Volunteer.Samaritan.com. This habitat clean-up day is a collaborative effort between Aurora Water, Aurora Open Space and Natural Resources and Bluff Lake Nature Center. If you have any questions about the clean-up, please email Fendi Despres at fdespres@auroragov.org.

An Aurora Oasis!
What Body Part Does the Carson Park Reflexology Path Focus On?

- Nose
- Arms
- Feet
- Back

We will certainly keep you on your toes at this month’s featured park. Carson Park, located at 14000 E. Oxford Pl, has something for the whole family.

Features include:
- A reflexology path that targets pressure points on your feet to get the blood flowing.
- An Egyptian-themed playground for the little explorers.
- Shelters, picnic tables and grills that provide the ideal spot for your next family cookout.
- Walking paths that are perfect for a stroll with the pup during golden hour.
- Several ponds and a fountain to help get you in the frame of mind to relax and unwind.

Learn more about all of our 103 city parks at AuroraGov.org/Parks.