Attend a program at your library

Look for letters out and about (grocery store, on a walk, etc.)

Read a book about an animal that lives underwater

Make the first letter of your name (or full name) with blocks or toys

Read your favorite book together

Talk about opposites and try to find examples at home or out and about

Talk about textures and how objects feel – rough, bumpy, soft, etc.

Talk about the colors you see when on a walk

Talk about your favorite sea creature

Learn a new vocabulary word by talking about something special

Practice writing the alphabet in dirt, flour or sand

Color or draw a picture

Draw shapes and letters with chalk

Color in the bubble once you have done the activity. Visit your library after you complete the activities in each skill set to receive a surprise.

Fill in all of the bubbles to receive a prize. Prizes available through Aug. 13, while supplies last.
