Furthermore...

- After obtaining your job, you may benefit from an income exemption as well as financial assistance related to childcare.
- If your income from employment, self-employment or other source of income is too high and you do not qualify for financial assistance, you may be eligible for additional health benefits.

Testimonial

" I'm a single parent and I started working part-time. Ontario Works deducts a portion of my income and my child-care expenses, which has allowed me to maintain my employment and some program benefits."

IVR & MyBenefits

- Interactive Voice Response (IVR): The IVR is an automated telephone line that provides active social assistance recipients with access to limited information about their case. This service is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- MyBenefits: MyBenefits gives people more choice and flexibility in how they get, manage, and report information regarding their Ontario Works file.

These two services allow you to declare your income.
