The court sua sponte removes this case from the regular calendar and places it on the court's accelerated calendar, 1st Dist. Loc.R. 11.1.1(A), and this judgment entry is not an opinion of the court. See Rep.Op.R. 3.1; App.R. 11.1(E).

This appeal concerns the latest in a long line of cases brought by the former patients of Dr. Abubakar Atiq Durrani and alleging various forms of malpractice, fraud, and negligence against Dr. Durrani, the Center for Advanced Spine Technologies, Inc., (“CAST”) and associated hospitals. Plaintiffs-appellants Robert and Deya Masters challenge the trial court’s grant of defendant-appellee The Christ Hospital’s motion to dismiss, asserting the same four issues under a single assignment of error. But we have repeatedly ruled against plaintiffs similarly situated to appellants on these issues in the past, and we do the same here.

Mr. Masters initially sought treatment from Dr. Durrani in early 2009, complaining of various symptoms stemming from a recent car crash. Dr. Durrani quickly recommended surgery, and in August of 2009, he performed a cervical spine surgery on Mr. Masters at The Christ Hospital. Unfortunately, Mr. Masters’s symptoms did not dissipate, leading to a subsequent surgery at another hospital. In September of 2015—more than six years after his initial surgery—Mr. Masters filed this suit against The Christ Hospital and other defendants, asserting claims for negligent credentialing, supervision, and retention, fraud, and spoliation of evidence (among others); Ms. Masters asserted a claim for loss of consortium. The Christ Hospital responded with a motion to dismiss the suit as time-barred under R.C. 2305.113(C), which the trial granted.

In the first issue raised by their sole assignment of error, plaintiffs-appellants contend that the trial court erred by holding that Mr. Masters’s negligent credentialing claim against The Christ Hospital is a “medical claim” subject to the statute of repose. This argument is squarely foreclosed by Young v. Durrani, 2016-Ohio-5526, 61 N.E.3d 34, ¶ 21 (1st Dist.); Jonas v. Durrani, 2020-Ohio-3787, 156 N.E.3d 365, ¶ 10 (1st Dist.), rev’d on other grounds, Carr v. Durrani, ___ Ohio St.3d ___, 2020-Ohio-6943, ___ N.E.3d ___; and McNeal v. Durrani, 2019-Ohio-5351, 138 N.E.3d 1231, ¶ 19 (1st Dist.), rev’d on other grounds, Scott v. Durrani, 162 Ohio St.3d 507, 2020-Ohio-6932, 165 N.E.3d 1268. We once again decline the invitation to revisit this settled law.

In the second issue raised by their assignment of error, plaintiffs-appellants urge this court to apply judicial doctrines of fraud and equitable estoppel to create an exception to the statute of repose. We have repeatedly rejected this invitation in the past and do the same here. See Jonas at ¶ 11; Freeman v. Durrani, 2019-Ohio-3643, 144 N.E.3d 1067, ¶ 24 (1st Dist.). “Where the General Assembly could have included an equitable estoppel or fraud exception (as some other states have done), but declined to do so, our job is not to supplant that authority, but rather to apply the statute as written.” Jonas at ¶ 11.

Next, in the third issue raised by their assignment of error, plaintiffs-appellants contend that Mr. Masters’s claims are not “medical claims,” but independent nonmedical fraud claims. This argument was rejected for substantially identical claims in Jonas at ¶ 9; Freeman at ¶ 18-21; and McNeal at ¶ 18. Again, we decline the invitation to revisit issues that are well-settled in this district.

Finally, in the fourth issue raised by their assignment of error, plaintiffs-appellants argue that the trial court erred in dismissing Mr. Masters’s spoliation of evidence claim. But in order to state a spoliation of evidence claim, a plaintiff must show (among other elements) that willful destruction of evidence actually disrupted his case. See Janson v. Durrani, 1st Dist. Hamilton Nos. C-200047, C-200048, C-200050, C-200052, C-200053, C-200054, C-200055 and C-200056, 2021-Ohio-1467, ¶ 32; Simek v. Orthopedic & Neurological Consultants, Inc., 10th Dist. Franklin No. 17AP-671, 2019-Ohio-3901, ¶ 99. Here, because “all other claims brought against [The Christ Hospital] were properly dismissed * * * * plaintiffs would be unable to prove disruption of their respective cases and their spoliation-of-evidence claims would inevitably fail.” Janson at ¶ 32. See Heimberger v. Zeal Hotel Group, Ltd., 2015-Ohio-3845, 42 N.E.3d 323, ¶ 38 (10th Dist.) (“[S]ummary judgment against a spoliation claimant is appropriate where the evidence alleged to be willfully destroyed, altered, or concealed would not have changed the result of an unsuccessful underlying case, and no other damages are alleged.”). Dismissal of Mr. Masters’s spoliation of evidence claim was thus proper. See Janson at ¶ 32.

Having rejected each of the issues raised by plaintiffs-appellants’ sole assignment of error, we accordingly overrule that assignment of error and affirm the judgment of the trial court.

A certified copy of this judgment entry shall constitute the mandate, which shall be sent to the trial court under App.R. 27. Costs shall be taxed under App.R. 24.
