An ordinance amending Chapter 160 of the City Code to revise the fees for Administration of Government by the City Clerk and Fees for Resident Parking Permits, and to amend Chapter 332 to revise the requirements for Resident Parking Permits.

- a. An additional coverage fee $115 per ton will be assessed for containers exceeding the maximum tonnage;
- b An additional fee of approximately one-third of the cost of the container will be assessed for each day a container is kept over the allotted three days: $145 for a 10cy container, $180 for a 20cy container; and $220 for a 30cy container.

[6] Reserved.

[7] A fee of $32 will be assessed if a check bounces or a credit card is declined when processing payment of overage fees. This fee will also be assessed on all charge-backs.

[8] Non-profit organizations are eligible to receive roll-off container service at no charge (contingent upon adequate funding being available in the City budget). The non-profit organizations are block associations and civic associations. The container will be used only for community participation and not personal use. The container will be used only for general clean-up of the event. The container is not to be used for improvements or rehabilitations, or properties and buildings. Any construction and demolition waste found in the container will result in the organization being charged for the disposable rate of $115 per ton and a haulage fee of $225. Qualified organizations are eligible to receive one container per year.

(b) Rental of equipment. All organizations are prohibited from using equipment rented from the Department of Public Works to promote and/or advertise political campaigns or candidates being endorsed or elected by voters. The sole purpose of the usage of such equipment is to promote and/or advertise ethnic, cultural and other neighborhood festivities/parades by all organizations on a "first come first serve" basis throughout Jersey City. A minimum rental time of four hours is required and will only be issued pending availability. The equipment rental fees are:
