

Short-term Rentals Frequently Asked Questions

Chapter 255 of the Jersey City Municipal Code (the “Ordinance”) establishes the permitting requirements and penalties for Short-term Rentals in the City. The following will serve to summarize the Ordinance requirements and answer some common questions.

What is a Short-term Rental (“STR”)?

A STR is a rental of a residential dwelling, a Short-term Rental Property (“STRP”), for a period of no more than 28 consecutive days.

Who is allowed to be a STR landlord?

STRs may only be operated by a property owner after obtaining a permit.

Can an owner of any type of property in Jersey City obtain a permit?

No. Only the following types of properties and owners will qualify for a permit:

- *A dwelling unit located in a condominium association, homeowners association, or cooperative association, where:
(1) the association’s Bylaws, Master Deed, or other relevant governing document permits STRs, and
(2) the owner of the unit legally identifies an address within the association as his or her principal residence.*
- Individually or collectively owner-occupied single-family residences.
- Two dwelling units within a two-family residential dwelling, where one unit is owner-occupied.

- No more than three rooms within an owner-occupied single-family residence operating as a bed and breakfast as defined in the City Code. (Certain occupancy limits apply to this type of STR.)

A permit is required for each STR even if the STR is owned by the same owner and/or the STRs are in the same dwelling.

What does “owner occupied” mean?

“Owner-occupied” means that the owner of the STRP or a Responsible Party (see below) resides in the STRP or in the principal residential unit with which the STRP is associated on the same lot, and identifies same as his or her principal residence. If a STRP is not owned by an individual, then at least one principal or member of the owner entity must reside in the STRP or in the principal residential unit with which the STRP is associated on the same lot, and identify same as his or her principal residence.

What does “principal residence” mean?

“Principal residence” means the address:

- (2) which is most clearly the center of his or her domestic life; and*
- (3) which is identified on his or her driver’s license or State Identification Card as being his or her legal address.*

All the above requirements must be met in order for an address to constitute a principal residence.

What does Responsible Party mean?

“Responsible Party” means the STRP owner or a person (property manager) designated by the owner to be called upon and be responsible at all times during the period of a STR and to answer for the maintenance of the STRP, or the conduct and acts of occupants of the STRP, and, in the case of the property manager, to accept service of legal process on behalf of the STRP owner.

The STRP Agent must be available for and responsive to contact on behalf of the owner at all times.

obtaining a STR permit issued by the Division of Housing Preservation. There are two limited exceptions to the permit requirement:

- 1. In those cases where, at the time the Ordinance was adopted, June 6, 2019, a STR that is not eligible for a STR permit has an existing contract with a transient occupant to use the STR for some period of time before January 1, 2021, the requirements of the Ordinance do not apply to that pre-existing contract. Note: The owner or Responsible Party may be required to submit additional documentation if requested by the Division of Housing Preservation.*
- 2. For a limited time, as long as an owner/operator applies for a STR permit, the owner/operator may continue to operate without receiving the permit unless, upon review of the permit application or after the required inspections, the application is denied.*
