Please join the Davenport Civil Rights Commission for its 60th Anniversary Conference: Staying the Course - Celebrating 60 Years of Civil Rights, on July 6-7, 2022 at the RiverCenter Convention Center in Davenport Iowa. The conference will highlight the importance of civil rights agencies within the City of Davenport and throughout the state of Iowa and their importance in building successful, strong and connected communities; current issues in fair housing law, the impact of biases on case investigations and trauma-informed interviewing techniques.

The symposium will feature two distinct session tracks:

Fair Housing Sessions:

Source of Income Discrimination

Reasonable Accommodations

Sexual Harassment in Housing

Nuisance/Crime Free Ordinance Enforcement and the Law

The Affordable Housing Crisis

Criminal Records Screening and the Law

Fair Housing Legal Updates

LGBTQ Discrimination and the Fair Housing Act

Social Justice Sessions:

A Death by 1000 Cuts: The Emotional Harm of Discrimination*

Do They Matter?*^

Trauma Informed Interviewing^

Understanding the Racial Wealth Gap*

The Collateral Consequences of the War on Drugs*

Staying the Course By Any Means Necessary

All sessions are approved for CLE credit.

* - 90 minutes diversity and inclusion CLE credit

^ - 90 minutes Ethics CLE credit

The cost for the conference is $150 for in person attendance and $100 for virtual attendees. The price includes conference admission, Iowa CLE/CEU credit, an Action Toolkit, breakfast refreshments and lunch.
