How to Ask Questions During Virtual Meeting:

- Participants will be muted by default when calling or logging into the meeting. The meeting will be in “listen only” mode and the public will be prompted when to call in with a question/comment at the appropriate times on the agenda.
- When public comment is permitted, the audience will be asked if anyone would like to address the Commission with any questions/comments. When prompted to address the Commission, participants should call in or click on the “raise your hand” icon by following the instructions below.

If an individual would like to address the Commission, they should:

- 1) Click the “Raise Hand” button if they join via Zoom (see graphic below)
- 2) Or if on the phone, dial *9 (star nine) to be added to the public comment queue.

If you have a question regarding this meeting and are unable to attend, please send your question to shubbard@vah.com by 3 p.m., October 20th. Your question will be read at the meeting. Users who experience an issue with the virtual meeting and are unable to comment should email shubbard@vah.com and your question will be responded to the next business day.
