

Procurement Frequently Asked Questions

1. How do we get on your bidder's list?

The Manatee County Procurement Division offers free vendor registration and current solicitation notification service through DemandStar. Vendors must register, for free, to access current solicitations on DemandStar.

Solicitations are also advertised on Mymanatee.org.

https://www.mymanatee.org/departments/financial_management/doing_business_with_manatee_county/bids_and_proposals. Registration is not required to access solicitations on Mymanatee.org.

2. When are the results available from a bid that has opened?

Results will be posted on Mymanatee and DemandStar. You may contact the Procurement Professional assigned to the solicitation after the review period.

3. How can I find out the status of a project out for bid or under review?

The most up to date information can be found on My Manatee and DemandStar, or you can contact the Procurement Division at 941-749-3014.
