Manatee County Utilities
Toilet Rebate Application

NOTE: Only toilet(s) manufactured in 1994 or prior, with 3.5 gpf or larger water tanks, are eligible for a rebate (date can be found on the bottom of the lid of the toilet tank or inside the tank itself). Rebate is available for Manatee County Utilities direct water customers only. Residents whose primary water bills are paid directly to the City of Bradenton, City of Palmetto, Town of LBK, or Sarasota County are NOT eligible. Contact your local Utility to check for available programs.

A. TO RECEIVE YOUR REBATE, FOLLOW THESE STEPS:

1) Replace your old toilet(s) with EPA WaterSense labeled toilet(s) that uses 1.28 gallons or less per flush.
2) Save the lid and water tank of the old toilet(s) for verification. You may be contacted by program staff to schedule an on-site inspection.
3) When returning this application, the following must be attached:
   - Copy of itemized purchase receipt(s) showing paid ($0) balance.
   - Copy of water bill. If your water bill is paid by the homeowners’ association (master meter), please provide the name of the association in appropriate field below.
   - Four photographs: 1) Old toilet installed prior to removal 2) Old toilet tank or lid showing the year/volume 3) New toilet after installation 4) WaterSense label on the new toilet
   - Note: You can email your application and/or photos instead of mailing to: toilet.rebate@mymanatee.org
4) This application with all corresponding documentation must be submitted within 90 days from the purchase of new toilet(s).

(1) Rebate amount not to exceed $100.00 per toilet. Rebate available for up to two (2) toilets total per household.
(1) Manatee County reserves the right to withhold a rebate for failure to comply with program requirements.
