Creation of Renton’s Equity Commission

Presentation to Council Committee of Whole
Benita Horn, Preeti Shridhar, November 1, 2021
Declaration of Policy

- Council finds all forms of prejudice and discrimination to have a detrimental effect on the public welfare and well-being.
- To eliminate such prejudice and discrimination the City may use the Renton Equity Lens to identify and address the inequities.
- Council further determines that the City of Renton’s Business Plan will include as part of its vision – “Building an inclusive, informed and hate-free city with equitable outcomes for all in support of social, economic and racial justice.”
Creation of Equity Commission

• The City originally had a Diversity Commission but over the years that did not meet the needs of equity and inclusion.

• In 2021, the City undertook a year-long effort including 11 meetings with various community groups reflecting the diversity of Renton to seek input to help shape the Renton Equity Commission.

• The City proposes the Renton Equity Commission and the following details to reflect the needs of equity and inclusion and to be in alignment with the Renton Business Plan.
Duties and Powers of Commission

- At staff request the Commission will review City practices, policies, or procedures to provide recommendations to the requestor.
- They will recommend whether the practice, policy, or procedure may create or support inequity, including what community or communities may be impacted, and how those impacts may emerge.
- Commission will provide specific actions to resolve the identified inequities.
- Within the first six months Commission shall develop a Mission, Vision, and By-Laws including elections of officers to manage its operations according to the terms of this Chapter.

Annual Report

The Renton Equity Commission will provide an annual report to the Council on goals, outcomes, and recommendations for future goals.
Appointment, Term, and Membership

• Total 9 members appointed by the Mayor, confirmed by Council.

• At initial appointment
  • 3 members for 1 year
  • 3 members for 2 years
  • 3 members for 3 years

• Terms shall be from January 1 of appointment year through December 31 of the term of expiration year.

• Members should reflect the diversity of the city but not limited to ethnicity, race, age, gender, faith, gender identity and expression, and profession. It is possible that not every group may be represented.
Applicants should have a commitment to equity.
