Governor's news is good for Renton

Gov. Inslee had two pieces of good news for Renton. The mayor, streets and sewers, parks and recreation, police and fire department, the public library and the school district will receive a total of $16,500, so every dollar donated up to that amount will be doubled.

REACH Board members past and present have pledged to match donations up to $16,500, so every dollar donated up to that amount will be doubled. The latest addition to the hydrant art project honors Renton's sister city of Nishiwaki, Japan.

Support REACH through GiveBIG Washington

REACH is part of GiveBIG Washington, an ongoing campaign to support non-profits across the state. The drive runs April 4 and will culminate with GiveBIG Day on May 5.
