

Corporal Steven A Rintamaki, USMC

3rd Battalion, 1st Marine Regiment, 1st Marine Division

I Marine Expeditionary Force

Steven Arnold Rintamaki attended Meadowdale High School and Westside Place, in Seattle. He was a very photogenic child and appeared in advertisements for such businesses as Nordstrom and The Bon Marché. As a budding child violinist, he played in the Seattle Symphonette Orchestra. A mischievous risk-taker, Steven searched for challenges throughout his life. A true kid at heart Steven is remembered as a comedian, a violinist, a drummer, a skier, a loving son, grandson, brother and friend who valued relationships above all else.

Corporal Steven Rintamaki served as a Military Occupation Specialist in Iraq with the 3rd Battalion, 1st Marine Weapons Company, Combined Anti-Armor Team (CAAT) Platoon. Prior to that he was attached to the 3rd Battalion, 3rd Marine Regiment in Hawaii. He was killed in action in Al Anbar Province, Iraq on September 16, 2004.
