III. PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

The Council cannot act upon items presented during the public participation portion of the agenda. Individual Council members may ask questions of the public or may respond to any criticisms. Still, the open meeting law prohibits the members from discussing or considering the items among themselves until the matter is officially placed on the agenda. However, the open meeting law allows the City Council to ask staff to review a case or place it on a future Council agenda. A person has a five-minute time period to speak. If a person has a written presentation that requires more than five minutes to present verbally, they should indicate the estimated time required on the sign-up sheet. The presiding officer may grant additional time if the agenda for the meeting is not too full. A registered spokesperson for a recognized community organization shall be afforded ten minutes provided other members of the same organization agree beforehand to withhold their comments on the same subject.

Certification of Posting

The undersigned hereby certifies that a copy of this notice was duly posted at Williams City Hall interior board and exterior board in accordance with the statement filed by the City Council with the City Clerk.
